PARTRICIA MANNION SCHOLARSHIP and ACORN WA SCHOLARSHIP

INFORMATION and GUIDELINES FOR APPLICATIONS

1. PURPOSE OF THE SCHOLARSHIPS

The purpose of the scholarship is to enable the successful applicant to gain further education and training in the area of interest to self and for the benefit of perioperative nursing practice.

2. ELIGIBILITY FOR THE SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships will be considered and awarded to Registered and Enrolled Nurses who are enrolled in continuing education or relevant post graduate or honours programs and also to Registered and Enrolled nurses who work in country areas where there is seen to be a deficit in teaching and learning experience and also limitations to perioperative practice updates. Applicants must initiate their own placement prior to application of scholarship. Australian College of Perioperative Nurses Western Australia (ACORN WA) takes no responsibility in finding placements for applicants.

3. RELEVANCE OF THE SCHOLARSHIPS

ACORN WA may approve an area of study for continuing education or higher education including a research project by the applicant, which will benefit the beginning perioperative practitioner and perioperative nursing. A scholarship may also be approved that will assist a perioperative nurse to spend time in a regional hospital operating suite to gain further experience and consolidate practice relevant to their normal place of employment.

4. AVAILABILITY OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships shall be considered as applications are received by ACORN WA up to the value of $1500.

5. SELECTION PROCESS

- a) Applications will be addressed at the first Executive Meeting after receipt
- b) The scholarship application will be considered by members of the Executive Committee
- c) Applicants will be notified of the outcome within two weeks of the Executive meeting
- d) Each successful Scholarship applicant will be required to:
 - Be a resident of Western Australia
 - Provide proof of registration and home address
 - Be a current financial member of ACORN WA and have been for a minimum of twelve (12) months.
 - The successful applicant will provide a final report or undertake a presentation at an Education Session
- e) The scholarship will be expected to be taken within six (6) months of receiving the award

THE DECISION OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE SHALL BE FINAL AND BINDING ON ALL MATTERS

6. REPORTS

The successful applicant shall:

- a) Submit at such times as requested by ACORN WA interim reports on the progress of the study or program.
- b) Present to the members a written or oral report covering the area of expertise at the conclusion of the tenure of the scholarship
- c) Be available as a group resource person on the area of interest should the need arise.

7. PUBLICATION and COPYRIGHT

ACORN WA retains the right to publish the report or paper covering the area of study or research project. The copyright shall remain the property of ACORN WA. The applicant will be acknowledged as the author of the work.

8. APPLICATIONS

The applicant must provide in hard copy or email form:

- a) An ACORN WA Scholarship Application Cover Sheet available from the ACORN WA Secretariat or Executive Member.
- b) A written current Curriculum Vitae
- c) A written proposal with the following details:
 - The purpose and scope of the study/project must include objectives, key issues to be addressed, expected outcomes, timeframe from completion of project and expected costs.
 - ii) A full research proposal including timeframe for completion of study and a budget plan. The budget plan needs to include all consumables, transcribing and data analysis costs, and other related activities.

NOTE: The research proposal must not be more than five (5) pages long.

- d) Details of any other financial assistance (for the training) the applicant has obtained and/or applied for and any subsequent commitments to that financial body.
- e) A letter stating commencement of practice at a regional establishment (if applicable)
- f) All applications must be emailed to enquiries@acornwa.org.au

9. TIME FRAME

The scholarship is limited to successful applicants once. This is in line with the Australian College of Operating Room Ltd Nurses Grants.
